SUMMER 2025

TAKE UP A NEW INTEREST THIS SUMMER!

Debating during the summer can help kids develop crucial skills like critical thinking, public speaking, and problem-solving in a fun and engaging way. It encourages them to explore different perspectives, improve their communication abilities, and build confidence in expressing their ideas. Debate also promotes teamwork and helps them learn how to respectfully disagree. Plus, it's a great way to keep their minds active over the break!

Week 1

TIK TOK TAKE OVER

Social media is everywhere, shaping how we connect, learn, and express ourselves. But have you ever wondered what goes into making the next big platform? In the AM class, students will be designing their own social media platform, considering everything from branding and features to safety and user experience. For the final project, students will pitch their platform to the class, convincing investors why their app is the best!

In the PM class, students will explore the world of social media by analyzing the rise of TikTok and other popular apps. What makes an app go viral? How do creators engage their audiences? And what role do algorithms play in what we see?

Week 2

CRYPTO CRAZE: FUTURE OF MONEY

Cryptocurrency changes people’s thoughts about money, power, and the internet. But what exactly is crypto, and why does it matter? This week, students will unravel the mysteries of digital currency —from Bitcoin to NFTs. During the AM class, through impromptu speeches and real-life pitches, students will design their own digital currency or blockchain-based platform and pitch their ideas to “investors”.

During the PM class, They will explore the risks and rewards of decentralized finance, debate whether crypto is the future or just a trend, and participate in SPAR Debates on how governments and businesses are responding to this financial revolution.

Week 3

WELCOME HOME: BECOME A CITY PLANNER

Cities are more than just buildings and roads—they must be designed to keep people safe, especially in places like California, where earthquakes, wildfires, and floods are a constant threat. How do city planners prepare for these disasters? In the AM class, students will become city planners themselves, developing a neighborhood that balances safety, sustainability, and affordability. For the final project, students will present their city plan, convincing residents why their community is the safest and smartest place to call home!

In the PM class, students will explore the challenges of designing disaster-resistant cities and learn how different types of infrastructure can protect homes and businesses. students will become city planners themselves, developing a neighborhood that balances safety, sustainability, and affordability.

Week 4

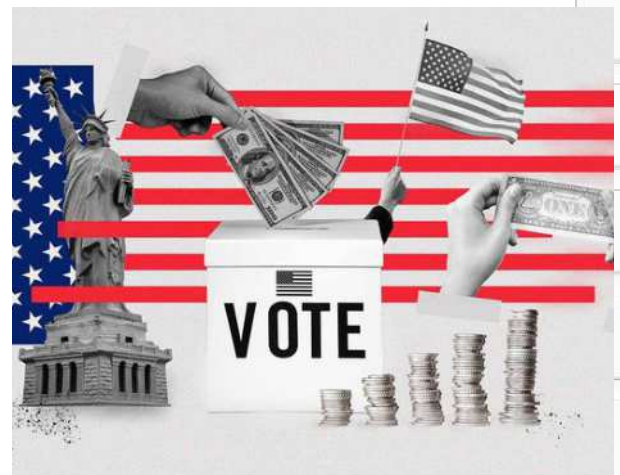

POLITICS: PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION

Dive deep into the most pressing political issues, enhance your public speaking skills, and engage in critical discussions that shape the future of our nation. Through intensive speech & debates, students will gain a better understanding of what it takes to become a successful leader and communicator.

In the AM, students will be learning what it takes to become a successful presidential candidate. From answering impromptu question, to giving a compelling speech.

In the PM class, students will be debating as if they are presidents. Working together to solve pressing issues in our world today.

Week 5 and 8

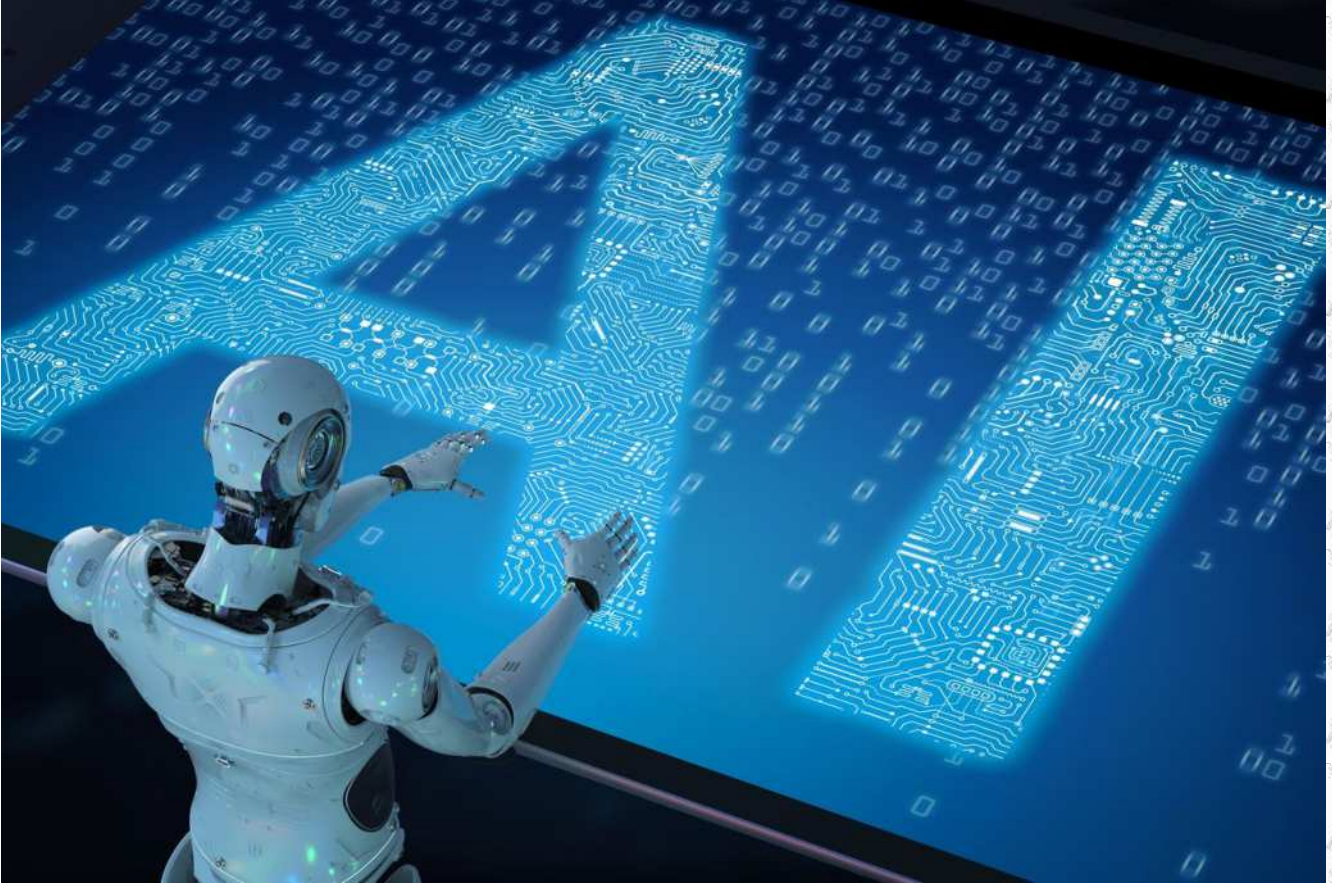

FILM: MAGIC OF STORYTELLING

Lights, Camera, Action! Jump into action with the magic of storytelling and scriptwriting!

In the AM class, students will discover the art of crafting compelling narratives, writing plots for a movie, and developing their own characters. For the showcase, students will pitch their movie ideas to investors to hopefully score a movie deal!

In the PM class, elevate your storytelling and scriptwriting skills designed specifically for high school students passionate about film and narrative craft. This immersive camp delves deep into the nuances of creating compelling scripts, from character development to plot structure, while refining your public speaking and performance techniques.

Week 6

AI: FRIEND OR FOE?

Artificial Intelligence is advancing fast, but should we trust it? In the AM class, students will debate AI's future, design their own AI invention, and pitch their concept to investors. Along the way, they'll develop public speaking skills and engage in critical thinking about how AI shapes society.

In the PM class, Students will dive into AI & robotics to learn how technology affects our world. Should robots replace human workers? What tasks should AI be allowed to do? How can we ensure AI is fair and ethical?

Week 7

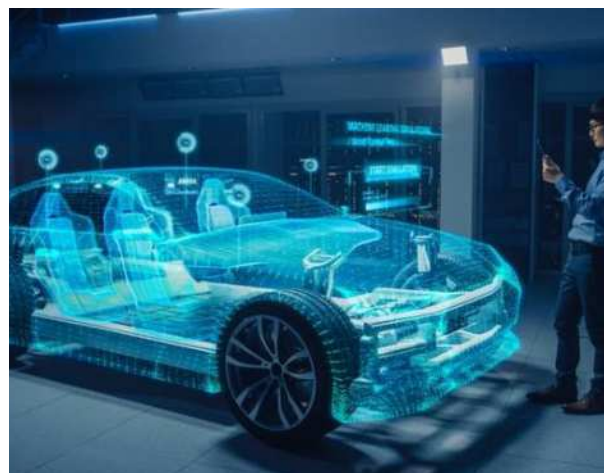

CAR CONUNDRUM: (GAS, HYBRID, ELECTRIC)

Cars have changed a lot over the years, but which type of car is best? Gas-powered cars have been around the longest, but hybrids and electric vehicles (EVs) are becoming more popular. In this class, students will compare gas, hybrid, and EVs in terms of environmental impact, cost, efficiency, and convenience. Through hands-on activities and debates, students will explore the challenges of transitioning to cleaner energy and design their own ideal car. For the final project, they will pitch their vehicle to the class and convince buyers why their car is the best choice for the future of transportation!

In the AM class, students will design their own ideal vehicle to wow the investors.

In the PM class, students will debate about all the issues surrounding the car conundrum.

MIDDLE SCHOOL BOOTCAMPS (GRADE 5-8)

Weekly Camps

AM Session (9:00-12:00pm) Ted-Talk

Come join us for a unique opportunity to develop your public speaking and presentation skills in a fun, supportive environment. Over the course of the camp, students will learn how to research topics, craft compelling speeches, engage an audience, and deliver their ideas with confidence. Through interactive workshops, expert coaching, and group practice sessions, campers gain the tools to create their own TED-style talks on a topic they are passionate about. This immersive experience fosters creativity, boosts self-esteem, and equips young speakers with lifelong communication skills.
